About the Coach

My name is Joel Grimm, and I am the Student Life Coordinator and an Upper School History and Theology Teacher. I have enjoyed playing soccer since I was five years old. I began my "playing career" in Parks and Recreation League here in Greenville, played soccer in high school, and then finished up playing intramural indoor soccer in college at Pfeiffer University. I have experience in coaching soccer for four-year-olds to eighteen-year-olds as well. Playing the world's most popular sport is one of my favorite things and I even have my own soccer goal in my front yard!

Did you know?

The center line of the football stadium in Brazil is exactly on the equator line, so that the competing teams in a match are always on different hemispheres.

From the Coach... Soccer is the world's most popular sport played by all ages. Come be a part of our soccer camp where we will participate in drills, games, and scrimmage one another. Whether you have been playing soccer for years, or if you are coming to try it out and see if you enjoy it, there is a spot for you. Sessions are broken up by age group, so that you can all learn at your own development level.
