From the Princess...

Does your daughter love to play dress-up or play kitchen or serve her furry friends tea, then this is the camp for her. These ladies will leave each day feeling like royalty as they discover each one of them is a princess all the time because their father is the King of all Kings and Lord of all Lords. They will receive a visit from Carolina Cotillion's Ann Cherry, a CCS grandparent and a private etiquette instructor. She will teach these ladies the dos and do nots of proper etiquette, while focusing on the seven pillars of Christ Covenant School...respect, order, unity, diligence, integrity, humility, and courage.

Watch your child grow spiritually and socially, while building confidence along the way.

My name is Anadi Nava. I was born in Anaheim, CA and my family moved here to Winterville, NC in 2007. We love it here and feel like this is our home and wish we would have moved sooner. My husband and I currently have two children at CCS. My daughter Kailey is in the 8th grade and my son Kalan is in the 2nd grade. I love teaching Spanish to our Upper School kids and then in the afternoon

I am blessed to join the Lower School and help with kindergarten. We have a little zoo in our house. We have two ferrets, four chinchillas, three cats and we recently added a dog to the mix. We love to travel as a family and explore places we have never been before. I look forward to having your children be a part of my summer camps.
