Objective:

Throughout the course of the film camp, students will be taught individual components of film making. By mid-week, students will take what they've learned to direct their very own short film as a collective team.

Day One: Introduction to Film & Scene Analysis

Day Two: Script Writing

Day Three: Pre-Production Phase

Day Four: Film Making & Directing

- Basic Prep/ Q&A
- The goal is to finish a 1-3-minute short film scene.
- Once completed, we will all review shots & have an open group discussion.
- Show basic set-up of editing process & color grading.
- Photo will be taken for the official film poster.

Day Five: Film Showcase & Premiere

- Students will watch their final version of the short film
- Group discussion
 - Favorite parts about the project
 - Constructive critique
- Students will then receive a film award & official copy of the movie poster as well as a link to the final project.

ABOUT THE DIRECTOR

Born and raised in Greenville, North Carolina, Rael Thigpen discovered his passion for the arts at a very young age. As a student, Rael was involved with stage productions and theater at J. H. Rose High School, and later discovered his passion for acting in film and dance at Liberty University.

Rael Thigpen has had many unique opportunities, resulting in film recognition. From being awarded "Best Special Effects" by the Raleigh Film & Art Festival to his "Best Actor" nomination at the International Christian Film Festival to walking the red carpet at the 69th Cannes Film Festival in France, he has acquired lasting memories and meaningful connections. He hopes to use film and creativity to make an impact on others and the next generation.
