

Summer 2023

Meet The Staff

Darrell Ange: Spartan Games

I was born in Washington, North Carolina and graduated from Washington High School. I graduated with a degree in General Education and am a Certified Fitness Trainer by the International Sports Science Association. I also hold a degree from Covenant Theological Seminary with a Bachelor's in Ministry and Biblical Studies. This is my seventh-year teaching at CCS. I teach P.E. as well as Old Testament and New Testament. I enjoy hunting, fishing, wilderness survival training and camping, and restoring and making handmade wooden furniture. Two things I am passionate about are helping others achieve their maximum potential and sharing the Gospel through the love of Christ.

Ginny Bland: Escape Room and Robotics

Hi, I'm Ginny Bland! I am from Greenville/Winterville, but my dad was in the military, so we were constantly moving every three years throughout my childhood. I graduated from East Carolina University in 2008 with my undergraduate studies in School Health Education and a minor in History, then in 2012, I earned my Master of Arts in Education, School Health Education. I have a license to teach health education, social studies, and academically and intellectually gifted education. I began teaching 2nd and 5th grade, but now I teach middle school. I've been a robotics coach at my school for ten ears and love taking kids through exploratory experiences filled with trials and errors, mistakes, and successes! Outside of school, I enjoy playing board games, watching football, cooking, and baking for friends/family, and drinking coffee on my porch!

Jeannie Brown: JumpStart

My name is Jeannie Brown. I was born right here in Greenville, and except for three years in Tulsa, Oklahoma while my husband was in seminary, I have lived in eastern North Carolina all my life. I have a B.S. in Special Education, a MAED in Middle Grades education, and graduate certifications in Special Education, Administration and Curriculum all from East Carolina University. I have taught children ages six months to twenty-one years, served as both an assistant principal and principal, and worked as a Coordinator of Exceptional Children's services and a Professional Development Facilitator at the central office level. I retired after forty years and now am enjoying supporting students at CCS.

I live with my husband, a retired United Methodist minister, and two Jack Russell terriers. We have two adult sons and two wonderful grandchildren. I enjoy reading, traveling, and spending time with family and friends.

Becky Clark: Exploring Nature

I grew up in Virginia, where I met my husband of fourteen years, Jordan Clark. I attended East Carolina University and earned a bachelor's degree in Elementary Education. I taught second and third grade at Christ Covenant School for over five years, before becoming an instructional coach and reading specialist. I currently homeschool my four children. I love classical education, nature, kids, and Jesus!

Annette Cox: Guitar

Annette Cox has spent many years teaching music at public and private schools and churches as well. Annette is a graduate of East Carolina University with a degree in Music Education and currently, Christ Covenant School's Music teacher for K-6th.

Jason Dulworth: Latin

I have taught at Christ Covenant for seven years. Missouri born and educated (B.A. Philosophy and Theology, M.A. English), I now teach English to grades 10 and 11. When I'm not teaching, I am usually reading, writing, farming, or at leisure with my wife, Courtney, and our three daughters and son.

Taylor Evans: Cheer Intensive and Theatre

Taylor has her Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree in Theatre Arts with a concentration in Theatre for Youth from East Carolina University. While at ECU, she also acted in mainstage productions "The Velveteen Rabbit", "The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe", "The Just So Stories" and multiple showcases. Taylor has directed productions at the Magnolia Arts Center including "Junie B. Jones Is Not A Crook", "The Stinky Cheese Man and other Fairly Stupid Tales" as well as other productions. She has also directed "How I Became A Pirate" at Theatre Winter Haven. Taylor has worked at Walt Disney World and many theaters in Orlando Florida. She has been working with children for over a decade and has a passion for sharing the world of theater with them.

Scarlett Goodwin: American Girl Doll

Currently a student at the University of North Carolina at Wilmington, Scarlett is a Christ Covenant School alumnus. She grew up dancing for ten years prior to serving as a member of the CCS Prefect Council. Scarlett helped see to the launch of Christ Covenant Camp last Summer as a graduate and is looking forward to spending her time with us again this Summer!

Joel Grimm: Soccer

My name is Joel Grimm, and I am the Student Life Coordinator and an Upper School history and theology teacher. I have enjoyed playing soccer since I was five years old. I began my “playing career” in Parks and Recreation League here in Greenville, played soccer in high school, and then finished up playing intramural indoor soccer in college at Pfeiffer University. I have experience in coaching soccer for four-year-olds to 18-year-olds as well. Playing the world’s most popular sport is one of my favorite things and I even have my own soccer goal in my front yard!

John & Ashley Holloman: Ninja Warrior

We are the owners of Warrior Zone. We have two incredible children, Luke and Gracyn. Our ninja journey started when John had the opportunity to participate on the show American Ninja Warrior! John has always been very active and loves to climb and swing on things, so ninja is a perfect fit! As a family, we asked God to guide us in the next step with our ninja journey after the show. We knew God had a plan and purpose for leading us into the love of ninja as a family. We didn’t know it would lead to us owning a ninja gym, but it did and for that we are very grateful! We want to help people grow to love the sport of ninja! We hope to create an environment of encouragement and inspiration too. Ninja has opened many doors for our family. John has had opportunities not only to participate in various Ninja events and competitions, but also to speak at different events and churches.

Nathan & Robin Hudson: Lego Builders

We have been married for twelve years and have four kids, all who love Legos. I grew up in Texas, California, and North Carolina before graduating from Virginia Tech with a bachelor's in architecture. I worked in architecture for over a decade designing schools, restaurants, retail stores, and even a Ronald McDonald house expansion. Nathan grew up in Ohio before coming to North Carolina for graduate school. He studied physics and biology at Kent State University and received a PhD in physics from UNC-Chapel Hill. He did five years of research at Harvard Medical School before getting a job in the ECU department of physics where he has worked the past five years. Nathan was a coach, and I was a design advisor to a Lego league junior team. Outside of our work and kids, we enjoy traveling, home renovation projects, board games, and serving at our church.

Anna Ipock: Fraction Boot Camp

I grew up in Pinetops, NC. I graduated from ECU with a degree in Secondary Math Education. I have been teaching for nearly twenty years in both public and private schools. I currently teach 4th Grade. Outside of the classroom, I enjoy planning and going on day trips with my girls to interesting (and sometimes random) places.

Ann McClung: Robotics

Ann McClung has been the Science Coordinator for the Center for STEM Education Department at East Carolina University since January 2015. A local from Hookerton, Ann received both her BS and MAEd degrees from East Carolina. Her and her husband are lead mentors for the Pitt Pirates Robotics Team 2642 and PiRates 13735 FTC Team. They work with middle school and high school students during the year building robots at the NC Museum of Natural Sciences and hosting FLL tournaments for their local FIRST Lego League Teams.

Johnna Modlin: Sew Creative

Hi. I'm Johnna Modlin and I am SEW excited to be leading a summer camp this year! I have fond memories of sewing special creations with my mother, a former home economics teacher, each summer at our home in Fuquay-Varina, NC. I continued to enjoy crafting and sewing while in college at Salem College and while in graduate school at ECU. I have an undergraduate degree in Sociology and obtained teaching licenses in Elementary Education (K-6th grades) and Learning Disabilities (K-12th grade) and a master's degree in Speech-Language Pathology. I practiced as a Speech-Language Pathologist for eighteen years in homes, daycares, Head Starts, and in elementary, middle, and high school settings. I love watching children learn new skills and reach their goals! I also enjoy cooking, traveling, reading, and spending time with my friends and family.

Anadi Nava: Astronomy, Princess Tea Party, Spanish, and Super Hero

My name is Anadi Nava. I was born in Anaheim, CA and my family moved here to Winterville, NC in 2007. We love it here and feel like this is our home. My husband and I currently have two children, Kailey and Kalan, at CCS. I love teaching Spanish to our Upper School kids and then in the afternoon, I am blessed to join the Lower School and help with kindergarten. We have a little zoo in our house. We have two ferrets, four chinchillas, three cats and we recently added a dog to the mix. We love to travel as a family and explore places we have never been before. I look forward to having your children be a part of my summer camps.

Susan Nguyen: Princess Ballet, Storybook Dance, and Animals of the Ark Dance

I graduated from East Carolina University with a B.S. in Dance Education. My license and certification are Dance K-12. This is my 20th year teaching dance in the public schools of eastern North Carolina; however, I have been teaching dance in a private studio for over twenty-seven years. I have been the owner and artist director of my own studio in my hometown of Ahoskie for over thirteen years. Along with running the studio, I currently teach middle school in Winterville.

Allison Phelps: Sweet Eats

Allison was born and raised in Eastern North Carolina. She attended Pungo Christian Academy in Belhaven, NC for her K-12 education, before obtaining a degree in Culinary Arts from Lenoir CC in 2006. After graduation she worked within the culinary field for several years before opening her home-based bakery in 2009. She has served Eastern and Central NC for the last 13 years with made-from-scratch cakes, cookies, and specialty desserts.

Lynn Seyler: Basketball

My name is Lynn Seyler. I am a wife to an awesome husband, John, and mom to six amazing kids, four of whom attend CCS. I have been brought up around sports my whole life and love to watch and play them. I played Varsity basketball in high school and played on an Army women's team at Fort Gordon, while I was in nursing school. I have coached 8th grade girls basketball in Michigan, Ayden Parks and Recreation boys/girls basketball for several years and for the past five years, helped coach the CCS Varsity girls basketball team. My passions are helping others, trying to get dogs and cats adopted, and Loving Like Jesus.

Lara Smith: Calligraphy and Christmas in July

My name is Lara Smith and I have been a Calligraphy Artist for 6 years now. I run Smith Custom Creations here in Greenville and I have a huge passion for all things artistic! My business specializes in handmade and hand painted home decor. I am the mom of 2 sweet boys, ages 5 and 18 months and I teach piano as well. I love teaching others to be artistic and I am looking forward to encouraging children to explore just how talented and creative they can be!

Nikki Walker: Latin

I am a native of Windsor, NC. I graduated from Campbell University with my undergraduate degree (B.A. Pre-law) and later my J.D. I have been at Christ Covenant for four years but teaching since 2019. I teach middle school Latin and Logic. In addition to teaching, I still practice law part-time. When I'm not teaching, I enjoy learning guitar, playing piano and singing, and hanging out with my husband, daughter, and two dogs.

Regan Waters: Lockdown and Splash Pad

My name is Regan Waters. I was born into a long line of hog farmers from Greene County. I graduated from NC State in 2008 with a bachelor's degree in accounting and a concentration in financial analysis. Immediately following, I received a master's degree from East Carolina in accounting. I worked in corporate finance before joining the administrative staff of Christ Covenant School in January of 2014. My oldest three children attend Christ Covenant, and my fourth child will be attending the Lower School next Fall as a Junior-Kindergartener. I enjoy DIY projects, reading, and playing tennis.

Renee Yongue: Renee's Art Workshop

I graduated from East Carolina in child development in art education. As an experienced muralist and faux finish artist, I have devoted myself to event design and private instruction for over twenty years. I am young at heart, so camps are where I can let my passion run wild. I am in my sixth-year teaching at Christ Covenant, where I introduced our families to the world of Glow last year. I have two children and was a former CCS parent. My daughter graduated from the rehabilitation science program at ECU and works as an accomplished artist. My son attends UNCW and works in the arts as a photographer.
