About the Lady Behind the Crafts

I was born and raised in Belhaven, NC and attended Pungo Christian Academy and East Carolina University, where I received a Bachelor's and master's degree in Elementary Education. I hold a K-6 teaching license, K-12 math license, and K-12 ESL license. In my free time, I enjoy being with my family, going to the beach, and walking/exercising.

From the Crafter... What's a better way to spend your summertime than crafting with friends and digging deeper in the Word? Join me for some summer fun during our craft workshop! We'll do small projects along with some bigger projects! Some individualized and some group projects! I can't wait to see what my crafties create this summer! Come join our fun!
